Work and Inequality: Shaping the Future 2030

with Guest Speaker

Dave Snapp

SEIU 21st Century Blueprint Committee

Military planners coined the term VUCA to describe a world that is increasingly volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous. In a VUCA world, organizations - especially unions - need to be resilient and adaptive in order to survive and thrive. That's part of the thinking behind the SEIU's 21st Century Blueprint Committee, which is working to develop long-term, game-changing strategies based on an understanding of the future. The work of the Committee is still in progress, but this talk will share some of the lessons during the first "forecast" phase of the work. We will share an overview of 6 megatrends shaping the future for workers in the U.S. and globally, and what the union has been learning in the process of exploration.

Dave Snapp has worked in the labor movement for nearly forty years. He currently staffs the SEIU 21st Century Blueprint Committee. He has been an organizational and strategic consultant to unions since 2000. Among his clients have been the SEIU, UFCW, Coalition of Kaiser Permanente Unions, AFL-CIO and Change to Win. Prior to that he worked for 17 years on the SEIU staff as an organizer, Assistant Research Director and Health Care Division Director.
